"We are thrilled to have four of our Moxy Hotels awarded among New York City's top hotels," shared Mitchell Hochberg, President of Lightstone. "Through these properties, we have reimagined the traditional hospitality model to reflect the needs of today's travelers— style, comfort, and genuine hospitality at an affordable price."

Lightstone's Moxy Hotels act as hubs of their respective neighborhoods for guests and locals alike, collectively offering elevated and unique programming; socially activated, versatile public spaces (inclusive of meeting and event spaces); cleverly designed rooms; and multiple restaurant and bar options from leading food and beverage groups like TAO and Bar Lab Hospitality. Moxy Chelsea reimagines the urban jungle, blending botanically-inspired design with Italian romance – the Flower District's new secret garden. Moxy East Village connects to the neighborhood where rock 'n' roll, renegade art, LGBTQ+ activism, and generations of immigrants all merged to give birth to American counterculture. Moxy Lower East Side integrates with the neighborhood's history as a crossroads of entertainment and culture, and was rated by Rolling Stone as the top hotel for Music Fans in the country. Most recent to the portfolio is Moxy Williamsburg, a community hub whose easygoing spirit fits seamlessly into its trendsetting neighborhood, offering pickleball, a unique event space, and epic NYC views.
